

Purpose:
 Create a model to guide public health departments in expanding their role in addressing the health needs of older adults

Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Outcomes	Impacts
37 FL County Health Departments (CHDs) TFAH staff FL DOH and DOEA staff Advisory Committee Healthy aging experts National partners Website with resource bank, including toolkits, case studies, best practices John A. Hartford Foundation support and funding	In-person convenings CHD expert learning calls Internal assessment of capacity to expand CHD role in aging Vision and Action Plan creation by each participating CHD Identification of new partners and sectors for collaboration Webinars Monthly newsletter County specific TA with experts Case studies Peer-to-peer learning Meetings with national partner organizations Conference presentations	Each Learning Network county implements an action plan to expand its role in aging Each Learning Network county identifies key staff person(s) as agency lead in aging Strong intra-state, inter/intra agency relationships Increased CHD collaboration between county health and aging sector partners (agencies, CBOs) Sharing of evidence, resources, best practices, and challenges within the Learning Network & all FL CHDs	Change public health practice by increasing CHD roles in addressing the health and well-being of older adults County-level implementation of evidence-based practices, programs and policies that address older adult health Increase in number of communities that join the AARP Age-Friendly Communities Network Creation and promotion of a FL and national policy agenda to improve older adult health Inclusion of objectives related to older adult health in CHIP/SHIP Inclusion of older adult questions and/or indicators in CHA and CHNA	Improved health outcomes for older adults at the individual and population levels -Reduced chronic disease and better management of chronic disease -Reduced infectious disease -Improved mental health -Reduced substance misuse -Reduced falls and deaths from falls -Increased rates of immunizations Implementation of policies and practice that address SDOH, such as: -Social isolation -Emergency preparedness -Transportation and housing options Improved conditions for older adults to age-in-place and live active, productive lives, such as: -Caregiver support -Dementia-friendly communities and networks -Elder abuse training and interventions